FOUR WARSHIPS OF ITALIAN FLEET SUNK BY BRITISH BOMBERS

Two Submarines, One Destroyer and One Submarine Depot Ship Destroyed in Libyan Harbor—Extensive Damage Caused by R.A.F. Planes On Other Enemy Objectives

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 23 (P).—The Royal Air Force announced today British bombers destroyed two Italian submarines, one destroyer and one submarine depot ship yesterday in a low-flying attack on warships anchored in the Bomba Roadstead, Libya.

Bomba is about 100 miles from the Egyptian frontier.

The text of the Friday noon communiqué:

"Our aircraft made a low-flying attack on enemy warships anchored in Bomba Roadstead, obtaining direct hits which destroyed two submarines, one destroyer and a submarine depot ship.

"All our aircraft returned safely.

"The attacking aircraft were fired on by heavy anti-aircraft guns, pom-poms and multiple machine guns.

LANDING GROUND BOMBED

"Our bombers also attacked the landing ground at Derna as well as motor transport concentrations, a repair depot and shipping.

"Many bombs exploded among aircraft and motor transport vehicles, causing considerable damage.

"We suffered no casualties.

"In Italian Somaliland, Magdidi-alcidrome was subjected to a series of raids by bombers of the South African Air Force. Direct hits were scored on transport concentrated in the vicinity of administrative buildings, which subsequently were being burned.

DIRECT HITS SCORED

"Direct hits were also scored on buildings, hangars, wireless transmitting station and barracks.

"Three enemy aircraft were believed to have been badly damaged. All our aircraft returned safely.

"Numerous reconnaissances were carried out over the Kenya-Italian Somaliland frontier. In the course

NINE KILLED IN AIR CRASH

United States Army Bomber Falls and Explodes On Prairie

DENVER, Aug. 23 (P).—A United States army bomber—held to its course into a lightning-struck cloudbank to avert possible collision with a sister ship—carried nine men to death as it crashed and exploded on a prairie twenty-three miles southeast of Denver.

Tonight, nearly twenty-four hours after the crash disappeared on a routine bombing mission, army officers picked through scattered bits of wreckage in an attempt to determine the cause. Lightning was eliminated.

Two officers and seven enlisted men were aboard the twin-motored Douglas medium bomber as it fell near the bombing range it had headed for after taking off from Lowry Field, Air Corps Technical School here, its gasoline tanks, containing about 300 gallons, exploded as it struck the ground. Bits of the plane and bodies were blown more than 300 yards.

At the controls was Second Lieut. Wilbur Champagne, thirty-four. Second Lieut. Blair Sorenson, co-pilot of the second plane, said Champagne radioed that he could not see the lights of the companion bomber and therefore was following the army practice in such a situation—flying straight ahead. That took him into the dense cloud.

Fifteen practice bombs carried by the plane were found scattered among the wreckage—none exploded.

The crash occurred during one of six regular daily bombing flights from the school, now operating night and day to train men in the Air Corps expansion programme.

JAPANESE BOMBS ARE INEXCUSABLE

CHUNGKING, Aug. 23 (P).—The Chinese Central Government considered the compulsory evacuation of all civilians except high officials and those directly serving war needs here as Japanese warplanes resumed their heavy bombing of this capital today.

The German embassy and American missionary residences, recently built in the suburban hills to avoid bombings, were badly damaged in the attack.

German correspondents of D.N.B. German news and propaganda agency, called the bombings by one of Germany's axis partners "inexcusable" in their dispatches to Berlin.

The high explosives blew in the walls of the German quarters as well as cottages of the American Methodist and Anglo-American China Institute Missions. The occupants escaped injury.

MEANS LONG DELAY

But, as the President saw the problem and outlined it to a press conference, postponement of conscription would mean nearly a year of delay in building up an adequate army. Volunteering has been at a high rate, he added, but is still insufficient. Conscription had been under discussion in Congress since June 20, he said, and the legislators were still talking about it, with no action in either House.

Senator Wiley was highly critical of the Civilian Draft Bill, and Senator Gerald Nye (Republican, North Dakota) denounced the measure as an "insult to our American boys," a "serious departure from the American way," and a proposal that might "help crack our democracy." The bill was proposed, he said, in "response to a hysteria that can definitely lead to dictatorship."

Mr. Roosevelt said a total of 400,000 enlistments were needed to fill the army and National Guard to its present authorized strength, and, although enlistments had been numerous, it would still take a year to get the 400,000 at the present rate. In addition, he said, another 400,000 were needed to fill in supporting units, and that would take another year.

Flock to Beaches Despite Bombers

British Sunday vacationers continue their week-end trips to the beaches, despite the threat of German bombing planes. This scene was taken at Brighton. Even when the air raid sirens scream, some sunbathers prefer to take their chances and watch the dramatic air battles that sometimes ensue when Royal Air Force fighters intercept the raiders.

Predict Collapse Of Conference on Hungary's Claims

Rumanian Reservists Called Up and Army Leaves Canceled as Negotiation of Transylvanian Problem Proves Fruitless—Axis Powers Not Expected to Attempt Mediation

TURNU-SEVERIN, Rumania, Aug. 23 (P).—Observers tonight predicted collapse of the Rumanian-Hungarian conference being held here to discuss Hungary's claims for part of the Rumanian province of Transylvania, formerly part of Hungarian territory.

(Bucharest dispatches said all Rumanian reserve officers and non-commissioned officers were unexpectedly called up tonight, and all army leaves canceled indefinitely. This was regarded as a sign the conversations at Turnu-Severin had taken a bad turn.)

Discussion of Hungary's territorial claim is scheduled to be resumed tomorrow, which he called potentially "dynamite." He predicted the Axis partners would merely seek to prevent an armed clash between Rumania and Hungary.

POTENTIAL "DYNAMITE"

A Hungarian source expressed doubt whether, in event of failure here, Germany and Italy would attempt any immediate arbitration of the problem, which he called potentially "dynamite."

He predicted the Axis partners would merely seek to prevent an armed clash between Rumania and Hungary.

PRESIDENT TO RETAIN OFFICE

Argentine Congress Factions Unite to Reject Resignation of Ortiz

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 23 (P).—All factions in Congress today decided to reject the resignation of ailing President Roberto M. Ortiz, ending a crisis over an army land purchase which threatened to split the country.

Rejection of the resignation and a vote of confidence for the President by 188 of the possible 190 votes in tomorrow's joint meeting of the Chamber and Senate were forecast tonight.

Liberals and Conservatives, who have been bickering more than ten years, are in agreement on a major issue the first time in a decade.

ACCUSED MAN DEAD

Victory Guillot, Radical (Liberal) party deputy accused of profiting in the land purchase, committed suicide today before what amounted to a united front to reject the President's resignation was shaped. Guillot, whose expulsion from "Chambers" had been asked by a Congressional committee investigating the land deal, was found in his study with a bullet wound in his head. On his desk calendar, he had scribbled a note: "May God forgive me."

Political observers believed that the Ortiz offer to resign, submitted last night, had served its purpose in rebuking officials who were implicated in the land transaction, and had won additional support for his attempt to pacify factions that have been at loggerheads for years.

FIRE AT TRAIL

TRAIL, B.C., Aug. 23 (P).—Estimated damage of $4,000 was done to stock in the McDonald Furniture Shop here by fire today. Cause of the blaze, which broke out in the rear premises, has not been determined.

NIGHT RAIDERS OVER MIDLANDS; BRITISH BOMB NAZI BATTERIES AND ATTACK MANY AIRFIELDS

From Europe Day by Day—THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1940, by Southern Co.)

LONDON, Aug. 23 (By Cable).—While the shelling of a Channel convoy from the French coast on Thursday was a complete failure, The Times naval correspondent warns against the belief that this is the best the Germans can do. It is to be expected that results will improve with practice.

Highly effective firing is not expected at the first trial, and the Germans are likely to prove a greater danger in the future. However, there are ways of dealing with such a situation, and the R.A.F. and Navy may be trusted to employ them.

The Germans obtained better results when the guns later shelled Dover, but casualties are remarkably few for such a heavy bombardment.

The R.A.F. soon silenced the guns, but whether temporarily or permanently was not revealed.

The Times diplomatic correspondent says the Germans are using well-tried tactics to disturb British-United States relations. The method is to put out reports of extravagant developments between the countries, suggesting they are about to merge their policies indiscreetly. This is calculated to cause mutual suspicion and strengthen isolationists and frighten off pro-British opinion in America.

German-inspired reports that Britain is seeking to engineer an "act of union" with the United States and achieve a military alliance has not the slightest foundation of fact.

The Times editorially approves the Bulgarian-Rumanian settlement. It reflects credit on diplomacy by both countries and removes the real grievance of twenty-seven years' standing. The internal stability of the Balkans should be strengthened, provided the arrangement is not upset from the outside. Rumania's hands are now freed of difficult negotiations with Hungary.

The rise of Parliament on Thursday gave The Times an opportunity to praise Churchill. Editorially, in part, it says, "No man ever took office at more difficult times. No man, not even younger Pitt, has ever had to sustain a greater series of military disasters. He has concealed nothing. He has endured everything with unflinching courage and resource. His reward is that he has become to our people and to our friends in other countries a symbol of energy and endurance and guarantee of ultimate victory. He can justly claim to be the leader of a nation united in a sense which makes earlier use of that word seem almost a misuse of language."

NOT WANTED IN ORDERS OF CHIVALRY

LONDON, Aug. 23 (P).—The King today ordered the removal of all persons of German and Italian nationality from the lists of honorary members of British orders of chivalry and from the roll of foreign holders of decorations and medals.

The King of Italy was a Knight of the Garter, highest of the orders.

OTTAWA, Aug. 23 (P).—Canada and the United Kingdom will observe a day of national prayer on September 8, first Sunday after the anniversary of the outbreak of war, it was announced tonight by Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Text of the Prime Minister's statement follows:

His Majesty the King has expressed the desire that Sunday, September 8, being the first Sunday of the anniversary of the outbreak of war, it should be observed in the United Kingdom as a day of national prayer. His Majesty's Government in Canada believes that Canadians generally will desire to associate themselves with the people of the United Kingdom in this observance.

The Government, therefore, requests the clergy of all churches in Canada to arrange, in preparing for services on Sunday, September 8, that the day shall be observed by their congregations as a day of national prayer and intercession.

CANADIAN FREIGHTER SUNK

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (P).—The New York Maritime Register said today that the 7,244-ton Canadian freighter Geraldine Mary had been sunk by "enemy action" off the Irish coast with a loss of three lives—one passenger and two crewmen. The sixteen-year-old vessel traded between Newfoundland and England.

Scale of Enemy Activity Greatly Reduced—Big German Guns Fail to Renew Shelling of Dover After R.A.F. Planes Attack—Invader Aircraft Machine-Gun Indiscriminately

LONDON, Aug. 24 (P).—German bombing planes made a prolonged raid over the industrial Midlands in the darkness before dawn this morning, dropping both high explosive and incendiary bombs near one town. Between 200 and 300 incendiary bombs fell in another Midlands area.

High explosive bombs fell near a postoffice, damaging property. No casualties were reported.

A raider, caught in searchlight beams over a West England town, lurched continuously when anti-aircraft shells burst around it. Raiders were over the town last night and early today. They met a heavy anti-aircraft barrage.

Gunfire drove off the raiders which dropped bombs in a residential area. Incendiaries dropped later in another district started fires which were quickly extinguished.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

"The Government communiqué, early today said:

"Last night enemy activity was on a smaller scale. Bombs were dropped at a number of points in the southeast and southwest of England, in one district in the Midlands and in another in South Wales.

"Some property was damaged in the Midlands and South Wales.

"Elsewhere very little damage was done. Casualties were very few and

ATTACKED IN TASMAN SEA

British Ship Unreported Since Telling of Encountering Enemy Raider

WELLINGTON, N.Z., Aug. 23 (P).—New Zealand naval and air forces searched the Tasman Sea tonight for an unidentified German raider which attacked the British steamer Turakina three days ago.

They also hunted the 8,706-ton Turakina herself. She flashed a radio message on Tuesday night that the raider was firing on her and gave her position. Nothing has been heard from her since.

The Tasman Sea is in the South Pacific between New Zealand and Australia. It was the first report of an attack on a British ship in Australian waters.

SHIP NOW OVERDUE

Prime Minister Peter Fraser announced the attack. He said the Turakina was due last night in a New Zealand port, but did not arrive.

The Turakina's appeal for aid was the first indication of a Nazi surface raider or submarine was in the South Pacific, although the 7,582-ton Canadian-Australian liner Niagara went down off the New Zealand coast last June 18, the sinking was attributed to a mine.

A German raider was reported preying on British shipping in the South Atlantic and Caribbean Sea last month, but she has not been heard of since the British auxiliary naval vessel Alcantara engaged her on July 31 off the coast of Brazil.

The Alcantara put into Rio de Janeiro for repairs after a "lucky shot" struck her and slowed her down. The Alcantara left Rio de Janeiro on August 5 in search of the Nazi ship.

TROOPS VISITED BY HIS MAJESTY

The King Addresses Newfoundlanders While on Inspection Trip in East Anglia

LONDON, Aug. 23 (P).—The King visited Newfoundland troops today during a 150-mile trip through East Anglia, and made an impromptu speech after inspecting concealed gunnery where naval guns are mounted for coastal defence.

"I am very glad to have this opportunity of seeing you at your new work," His Majesty said.

"I feel I must have seen a good many of you last year when I came to pay a visit to you. Now I am very glad you have come here to help the Old Country, and I know you will carry out your duties to the best of your ability for the welfare of this country and the Empire."

EXPECT EARLY CALL

While an early call to this group was expected, it was believed that the date for their report would not be earlier than mid-September.

Before enlisting the Guard bill, Congress inserted provisions designed to ease the hardships on individuals. It directed that men below the rank of captain who have dependents without other means of support, be permitted to resign, and that men under eighteen be honorably discharged. It directed, too, that an employer must rehire an employee-guardman when his period of active duty ends.

Another restriction limits the service of the guardmen to the Western Hemisphere, American possessions and the Philippine Islands.

ACCIDENT FATAL TO TWO SOLDIERS

Five Others Seriously Injured When Truck Plunges Into Ditch North of Toronto

TORONTO, Aug. 23 (P).—Two privates of the Canadian Active Service Force were killed, and five others seriously injured tonight, when a laundry truck in which they were passengers left the highway thirty-five miles north of here, plunged through a guard rail and crashed into a ditch.

Fatally injured were J. McCabe and L. W. O'Connell, both believed to be of the Royal Canadian Regiment at Camp Borden. They died in a Toronto military hospital shortly after admittance. The soldiers had hitch-hiked a ride from Camp Borden and were on their way to Toronto.

Police said the driver of the truck, Charles Hunt, of Toronto, lost control when he swerved to avoid another car.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

PARACHUTES DROPPED IN MIDLANDS

LONDON, Aug. 24 (P).—German planes were reported to have dropped parachutes in the Midlands area during extensive raids last night and early today.

APPEALS TO KEEP FRENCH FRIENDLY

LONDON, Aug. 24 (P).—Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express today urged upon the people of Great Britain a propaganda campaign to "keep the French people as friends." The newspaper made this suggestion in commenting on reports that the Vichy Government was preparing to turn over French airplanes to the Germans and remnants of the French fleet to the Italians. "There are stories that the intriguing Vichy clique, the kept masters of that country, are becoming anti-British," "The truth in France," the Express said, "is that it is reported that the French people are beginning to curse the men of Vichy and to wish they had fought on."

LONDON HAS AIR RAID ALARM

LONDON, Aug. 24 (P).—An air raid alarm was sounded in London shortly after 8 a.m. (11 p.m., P.M.T.), Friday. A few minutes after the alarm sounded dull thuds could be heard, as though bombs were being dropped on the outskirts of the London area. Roof-top observers were unable to see any planes, but they did hear what sounded like two or three planes high overhead.

BAHAMAS ORDERS CURRENCY IMPORTS HELD

NASSAU, Bahamas, Aug. 23 (P).—The Duke of Windsor, Governor of The Bahamas, today ordered search of any goods imported into or exported from The Bahamas, and authorized seizure of bank notes, postal orders, gold securities or foreign currency imported.

The order, taken under the Emergency Power Defence Act of 1939, becomes effective next Tuesday. Exemptions are possible only through special licence from the Duke.

REPORT FIRE IN GREEK ARMAMENT PLANT

BERLIN, Aug. 23 (AP Via Radio).—Athens dispatches quoted tonight by the German wireless claimed fire had destroyed one of Greece's largest armament plants, and that it was believed many had perished in the flames and explosions.

Residents of Dover Say German Gunners Uncomfortably Poor

Many Moving From Town Because of German Shelling—Missiles May Land Anywhere, Making Life Too Uncertain

DOVER, England, Aug. 23 (P)—Red and green moving vans packed with furniture moved ponderously up the Dover hills today, moving inhabitants and their goods of this famous Kent seaport which has now become a front-line city.

For, while there was no official order to get out, a good many of the city's 41,000 persons have decided that life is too uncertain now that the Germans have begun their shelling of this coast by big guns across the Channel.

They didn't mind so much the bombing raids—at any rate they were reasonably jolly in ducking for cover when the air raid warnings sounded—but most of them say now that the German gunners is too poor to be healthy. The big shells may land anywhere.

George Fitzpatrick's wine store was damaged, a church was hit, at least three dwellings were smashed, and a movie house was shaken so badly that the picture was blurred.

The splinters that hit Fitzpatrick's place smashed his German wine stock, but Fitzpatrick said he didn't care because he "couldn't sell the stuff anyway after the war started."

A policeman stood guard over two demolished house walls which stood no higher than four feet above the ground.

"Now would you believe it," he asked, "but an old woman and her husband were dug out of that house on the right—I mean what's left of it—and the man was nearly scratched. The wife was hurt only a little."

In another section of the town a small dwelling was crushed by a shell, which military men said may have been of twelve-inch calibre.

DANCES LIKE HOT TOTTOT
The picture theatre was crowded when it began "dancing like a Hot-tottot," according to excited patrons. They didn't mind that at first, but the projector and the screen danced a divergent rhythm and time, and the focus was ruined.

One shell scored a direct hit on a Protestant Church. On the floor among the debris of plaster and shattered candlesticks lay a colored print, "Jesus is Stripped of His Garments."

The picture bore the imprint of the shop of Franz Hanstaengel of Munich, the family of "Putzi" Hanstaengel, former piano-playing intimate of Adolf Hitler.

Do not pray for tastes equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tastes.—P. Brooks.

SHOULD HAVE BIGGER NAVY

Hon. Angus L. Macdonald Says Canada Will Add 100 More Ships in Year

HALIFAX, Aug. 23 (P)—Navy Minister Angus L. Macdonald said tonight he believed "Canada should have a respectable navy, commensurate with her size and with her trade."

"We are expanding now," he said, "and I hope we continue to expand until we have a force adequate for Canada's importance as a particularly great trading nation, as I am sure she will be after the war."

He admitted that type of a sea force would be "a good deal bigger than at present."

Mr. Macdonald, on his first visit to his native Nova Scotia since he took the naval portfolio at Ottawa, said that "we have 120 vessels, and we will add another 100 within the next year."

NO DOUBT OF FINAL ISSUE

Of the war, the Naval Minister predicted, "The struggle is hard and long, but there can be no doubt of the final issue."

"The people of Canada are more confident today than they were a few months ago, and that feeling is prevalent among the members of the Cabinet. Everybody in Ottawa is tremendously encouraged by the manner in which the Royal Air Force is fighting."

Mr. Macdonald had praise for the newly-created joint Canada-United States Defence Board. It was "a very good thing."

The question of sale of over-age American destroyers to Britain, and leasing of British possessions in this hemisphere to the United States, would be "all part of the general problems for the board."

WHEAT HARVEST WELL UNDER WAY

Weather Ideal for Crops in Most Parts of Prairies—Good Yield Foreseen

WINNIPEG, Aug. 23.—Ideal ripening and harvesting weather is reported across the Western Prairies in the weekly summary of crop conditions from the Agricultural Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway, only light frosts, occurring in sections of Northern Alberta, are reported as having done but slight damage. Light, scattered showers in Manitoba and some parts of Saskatchewan and Alberta have interfered little with harvesting operations.

Manitoba reports wheat 90 per cent harvested with oats and barley 83 per cent, both slightly lower than at the same time last year.

In Saskatchewan wheat cutting is general with approximately 41 per cent completed. Considerable average of oats and barley has been cut with the south eastern and east central sections farthest ahead.

GENERAL IN ALBERTA

Cutting is now general in Alberta except in the north central districts and harvesting of oats and barley is underway in many places. In the Peace River district of the western province light frosts have done but little damage and cutting has begun in practically all sections and will be general early next week.

From 20 to 30 per cent of what is harvested at Fairbairn and Berwyn, and is expected to make a total of 550 bushels to the acre. Oats will likely be fifty-four bushels and barley 32.

By provinces, both average and quality of grains would indicate one of Canada's heaviest records in years.

BRITISH COLUMBIA CROPS

General and beneficial rains are reported in British Columbia, Doxey and Vedette peaches are moving at the peak and Bartlett pears are moving from some districts. Plums and apples are being shipped from various points and beans and tomatoes are going to canneries in large quantities.

Total wheat yields in Kootenay and Creston territories are estimated to reach $25,000 bushels; the revised estimate of apples indicates a yield of 6,148,130 boxes as compared with 6,206,256 last year.

EXPLORER'S FATE FINALLY SOLVED

Missionary Learns From Indians Of Man's Death in Labrador Nine Years Ago

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Aug. 23 (P)—The fate of an explorer who has been missing since he set out with a companion and a native guide to cross the Labrador Peninsula nine years ago has been solved.

Father Edward O'Brien, missionary to the Labrador Indians, returned to St. John's today, revealing a band of his Indians had found a skeleton under a tattered tent in the wilds of North Labrador. The discovery was made 200 miles inland during the summer.

Pinning of the body apparently set the seal on the fate of Herman J. Koehler, sixty, of Orange, N.J., and Fred R. Connell, Jr., of Glen Ridge, N.J., who started a canoe trip into the Labrador-Quebec peninsula in July, 1931. They were accompanied by Jim Martin, a veteran Northern traveler, as guide.

Just a year after their canoe disappeared up the Kiksook River, at

ILLNESS IS THE CAUSE FOR DELAY

TORONTO, Aug. 23 (P)—Hon. Paul Leduc, acting Provincial Minister of Welfare, today cited development of a case of diphtheria among the fifty-five British children who arrived here on Monday and the resultant necessity of placing the whole group under quarantine as justification of the Government's action in maintaining the children in residence in Toronto before sending them on to their new homes.

Another child was removed from the train at Montreal, suffering from chicken pox. Since reaching Toronto, one of the children has undergone an emergency appendectomy.

CHANGE IS MADE IN REGULATIONS

Italians and Germans Naturalized Since 1922 Must Register As Enemy Aliens

OTTAWA, Aug. 23 (P)—A special edition of The Canada Gazette today announced changes in the Defence of Canada Regulations requiring that all Italians and Germans naturalized since 1922 must register as enemy aliens and report regularly to the police. Before the regulations were changed, only Italians and Germans naturalized after 1922 had to register.

By putting back the date seven years the Government followed the recommendation of the House of Commons committee which studied the regulations.

The view taken by the committee was that any Italian naturalized after Mussolini came into power in 1922 was open to suspicion because since that time Italian consuls were claimed to have been active in Canada converting Italians here to Fascist principles.

The change, while it includes Germans as well as Italians, does not affect Germans because none were naturalized between 1922 and 1929. For a number of years after the first Great War no Germans were given naturalization papers.

A provision is made that any Italian who can satisfy the Registrar-General he is a loyal Canadian citizen may be granted exemption so that he will not be required to report periodically to the police.

Fort Capuzzo Reoccupied by Italian Troops

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 23 (P)—Italian troops have reoccupied Fort Capuzzo near Bardia in Libya following the Royal Navy's recent shelling of the stone fort. British military headquarters announced today.

The communiqué issued today said: "The enemy reoccupied what is left of Fort Capuzzo after the naval bombardment of August 17."

Canadian Typists Gain Long Lead

TORONTO, Aug. 23 (P)—The Canadian typewriting team had a substantial lead tonight over the United States team, twelve hours after the start of the twelve-day marathon at the Canadian National Exhibition. Mollie Tuckman, of Ottawa, compiled a record for the event in her first minutes at the keyboard when she typed 1,156 words with but three errors.

A.R.P. Activities

The monthly meeting of District 2A was held on Tuesday at 1311 Point Street. District Warden W. P. Loveland was the chairman. An interesting lecture on anti-air technique was given by Capt. W. Everett.

District Warden S. W. Walker presided at the monthly meeting of District 3B, held in the City Hall on Thursday night. It was announced that first-aid classes would commence in September and the chairman asked that all wardens enroll for instruction in this work.

Wardens were asked to make a survey of their districts, noting particularly the number and types of houses, suitable shelter, if any, in case of raid, and the approximate number of children in the district. Acting on a suggestion that it may be possible to form a women's auxiliary, the district warden asked that names of women willing to act be forwarded to him.

A church parade of all members of the Air Raid Precaution Organization will be held at 3 p.m. on Sunday, September 8. This parade will include fire, police, schools, engineering, medical, St. John Ambulance Association, Red Cross Society and wardens' divisions. It is hoped that the mayor, warden and other members of the metropolitan committee will be present. The group will assemble on Pandora Avenue north of Quadra Street, at 2:30 p.m., and parade to the cathedral.

U.S. BAND ESCORTS BRITISH DETACHMENT

SHANGHAI, Aug. 23 (P)—A second detachment of the East Surrey Regiment embarked from Shanghai today for an undisclosed destination. The troops marched through the streets of the International Settlement headed by a United States Marine Corps band. The first group of the British troops, who are withdrawing from Shanghai, left Wednesday.

SING TO THE GOVERNOR
NASSAU, Bahamas, Aug. 23 (P)—A specially composed song entitled "Blessings on the Duke of Windsor" was sung to the new Governor of the Bahamas today, as nearly 10,000 natives attended an open-air reception for the Duke and Duchess in Clifford Park, near Fort Charlotte.

PEACH CROP BIG
OTTAWA, Aug. 23 (P)—The Department of Agriculture reported today that this year's peach crop is expected to reach 754,000 bushels. British Columbia is expected to yield 185,000 bushels, an increase of 8,600 bushels over last year's crop.

NOTED SCOUT AND EXPLORER VISITOR HERE

Major F. R. Burnham, of South African War Fame, To Address Club

Major F. R. Burnham, of South African War Fame, To Address Club

WAS INDIAN FIGHTER ON WESTERN FRONTIER

Major F. R. Burnham, D.S.O.

Adventurer, explorer, scout, Indian fighter, soldier of fortune and author, Major Frederick R. Burnham, D.S.O., arrived in Victoria yesterday for a short sojourn here to renew old acquaintances of South African fame, and to be the guest of the United Services Institution of Vancouver Island at a dinner in his honor to be held in the Empress Hotel on Wednesday, August 28, at 7 p.m.

Premier T. D. Pattullo has accepted an invitation to attend the dinner, and Hon. E. W. Hunter, Lieutenant-Governor, will be present or represented.

Still very active in spite of his eighty years of venturesome life, the major, who is staying at Craigflower Court during his visit here, has retired from active participation in business, spending his time in meeting old friends and making new ones, and taking an active interest in the California State Park Commission, of which he is a member.

Arriving here after paying a short visit to Calgary, where he spoke at a meeting of South African veterans, the major reiterated his assertion that it was his opinion the United States would enter the war as a combatant before the year's end.

LONG WAR
"It's going to be a long war, to my mind," said Major Burnham, "and it's going to be a grave one. People are not used to the idea of long wars, but look back at the Hundred Years' War, and the Seven Years' War, and other engagements of magnitude, and you'll see what happens when the world is divided almost equally in their different beliefs."

Recalling a meeting with Cecil Rhodes in South Africa in his younger days, Major Burnham brought to mind a statement the famous man made at the time, to the effect that "the control of the world is in the hands of the English-speaking peoples, if only they are astute enough to combine themselves. And it will be a control that is maintained without antagonism and without bloodshed."

And to back this statement, Major Burnham pointed out how the Boers sent 50,000 men into East Africa for the British, only fourteen years after the Boer War.

Born in Tivoli, Minn., Major Burnham has led an adventurous life from a very tender age. Following in the footsteps of his family who, for seven generations previously had been scouts and explorers of note, Major Burnham was a cowboy, guide, miner, scout and deputy sheriff in the Southern and Western States.

"While visiting Quebec some time ago," said Major Burnham, "I was extremely interested in the great rock outside the city where Wolfe met Montcalm, for one of my forebears was the scout who found the way up the face of the cliff. You can be sure I made extensive inquiries as to his exact path, and then proudly owned up to the relationship when I found that he had done a superb job."

Going to Africa in 1893, Major Burnham served under such distinguished generals as Kitchener, Baden-Powell, French, Roberts, MacDonald and many others, returning invalided to England from a wound suffered in the campaign in company with Winston Churchill.

DECORATED BY KING
While in South Africa, Major Burnham served in the Mafeking and Matabele wars of 1893-1896, and as Lord Roberts' chief of scouts in the South African War. He was personally thanked for his great services by Queen Victoria and King Edward VII, who also accorded special permission for Major Burnham to hold his rank as major without relinquishing his American citizenship.

In his book, "Scouting on Two Continents," he gives a vivid portrayal of his adventures as the "Greatest Living Scout," which included such items as discovering hidden treasures in the ruins of an ancient civilization while on an archaeological expedition; of being commanded to, and succeeding in, killing the Matabele god Umlimo during one of the African campaigns; and commanding an expedition up to the headwaters of the Nile and the Congo basin for purposes of exploration and mapping.

INTEREST IN HORSES
At the present time Major Burnham is greatly interested in the horse-breeding farm turned over to the California State by Dr. K. W. Kellogg, of cereal fame, who has succeeded in raising some of the finest Arabian horses on this continent.

Major Burnham will remain in Victoria until the end of the month, when he will return to his home in Los Angeles, Cal.

SEE COLLAPSE OF CONFERENCE

A Hungarian spokesman, describing developments thus far, said that before the conference began the Rumanians agreed to the principle of the Magyar demand for part of Transylvania, a territory which Rumania obtained in the first Great War settlement.

At the conference, he said, Hungary asked for about two-thirds of the 35,000 square miles of Transylvania, and Rumania proposed the transfer of populations, omitting any mention of possible land cession.

THE CHANNEL BOMBARDMENT

It may be a difficult task for the Royal Air Force to destroy the guns with which the Germans are bombarding Dover and the adjacent coast line. Some of these guns, reputed to be of twelve and fifteen-inch calibre, are brought up to their firing positions on flat cars, carry out their work, and are then withdrawn to cover. They will, however, when in firing position, offer excellent targets, and already British bombers have been attacking these new gun platforms. The damage they are likely to inflict on the English coast defences will be negligible, for it is doubtful if any success would attend their bombardment, even if carried out in co-operation with airplanes dropping bombs, or flares to direct their aim. Such airplanes would be speedily engaged by the R.A.F., and there is also the likelihood that only on rare occasions would visibility across the Channel be good enough for directional flares to be sighted.

The Channel bombardment is likely to prove more of a nuisance than anything else. Already British guns, from their own shore line, are replying to this form of attack, and British raiders are intensifying their bombing sallies on German-held Channel ports. This form of warfare by the enemy only has value if he can succeed in accounting for more merchant or naval tonnage in convoys. This he has already attempted without success, and in this phase of attack bad visibility will continue to be his handicap, as well as the smoke screen by which it is possible for war escorts to enshroud a convoy. From the sea, by air, and now through land batteries, the Germans are groping to find some weak spot in Great Britain's defences. Easily the most significant of these menaces, so far, has come from aerial attack, and it has been repulsed again and again. The Germans have found that mass air attacks lead to mass casualties to their machines, so, for the time being, they have reverted to raids by isolated planes or a few flying together. This is only a phase of the campaign. There will be other large-scale attacks by mass formations of bombers, with their fighter escorts. There will be sustained onslaughts on Great Britain's civilian population by the bombing of peaceful dwellings. Germany recognizes no "open towns." Her aim, if they cannot reach their military objectives, will get rid of their bombs somehow, irrespective of the nature of the damage they wreak or the innocent lives that they blot out.

TWO HUNDRED YEARS OLD

This month marks the 200th anniversary of "Rule, Britannia," the battle-song of an Empire, written by James Thomson in his "Songs in the Masque of Alfred." The authorship is often forgotten, because Thomson is better known to students for his composition "The Seasons." This gave him his place in English literature, and at a time when, ever since the Restoration, nature in the writings of poets had been sacrificed to foreign artificialities. Thomson, indeed, as the story of him recalls, was the first poet of eminence in the age in which he lived who rebelled against the importations from the Continent, "and strove to bring literature back to a purer style and to imbue it with a spirit closer to nature." Even though "The Seasons" survives because of the beauty of many of its descriptive passages, it is a poem, or series of poems, that has never become popular, perhaps because the diction of it is so frequently pompous, cumbersome and too luxurious. The work contains, however, some exquisite passages, such as the description of the "general hush and expectation that pervade inanimate nature" on the approach of Spring, the vivid picture of the coming tempest in Summer and the beautiful description of the shower in the woods.

In this time of crisis, when "Rule, Britannia" is repeating again in history the sentiments it expresses, it is interesting to note that it is one of the oldest of national war anthems. It was first sung in 1740, in an open-air theatre in the garden of Cliveden, that place which was a hospital for sick and wounded Canadians in the Great War and again is fulfilling that role in the present struggle. The spirited music for the song was composed by Dr. Thomas Arne, who, in connection with this anniversary, deserves at least equal credit with Thomson, the author of the verses. The music, though regarded as jingoistic by some, received the approval of such masters as Handel, Beethoven and Wagner, a fact that should still allay criticism of its merit. The words of the anthem have proved prophetic through the past two centuries, and perhaps were never truer than in the present crisis, especially the one stanza:

Three haughty tyrants ne'er shall tame;
All their attempts to bind them down,
Will but arouse thy generous flame;
But work their woe, and thy renown.

WITH TRUMPET AND DRUM

In this country too little use has been made of military bands. Some of them have, even in this wartime, been disbanded, and yet martial music is not only an asset in recruiting, but a method of reinforcing the spirit of the civilian population. Apparently the same absence of military music has been noted in England, because surprise was occasioned by official statements in the House of Commons that more than 100 military bands had been authorized, the surprise being due to the fact of any authorization being required in time of war. Every regiment should have its band; even where regiments are recruited by conscription.

It is recalled that there was the same lack of governmental recognition of the inspiration of martial music during the opening months of the last Great War. It was on November 7, 1914, that

The Times insisted that, if the War Office wanted recruits, it must let the public see more of the pomp and circumstances of war, and not neglect military music. In January, 1915, at a Mansion House meeting, the late Rudyard Kipling pleaded, in a memorable speech, for more bands. Now, in Great Britain, Sir Harry Brittain, according to The Times, puts the case perfectly when he suggests that "the stirring music of the Service bands would be an inspiration and a tonic to the men and women behind the line who are working now as they have never worked before. With bands playing and colors flying—that is an essential air of the spirit in which this people enters on the greatest adventure in all its history, and the music will fortify as well as express that high temper—a band playing proudly at the head of troops on the march, breathing, as Milton put it, deliberate valor, proclaiming to all that hear it the high spirit of those who take up arms against the Evil One."

SIR OLIVER LODGE

It is given to few men to have so full a life as Sir Oliver Lodge had, and to crowd so much achievement into it, in an age more renowned than any other for scientific discovery. His chief preoccupation during his most active years was electricity, and to research work in this he brought a mind deeply resourceful and equipped with many-sided knowledge. If Hertz had not discovered what are now known as the Hertzian waves, Sir Oliver would have. He had been on the very verge of this discovery at the time the results of Hertz's experiments were made public. Lodge and Hertz, more than any of their contemporaries, were the continuators of the work of Faraday and Clerk-Maxwell. The lines of investigation that Sir Oliver pursued were those dealing with the relation of light and electricity and the diffusion of electric force. He contributed a notable advance to wireless telegraphy by his coherer, and otherwise.

Sir Oliver was a prolific writer, and he had the faculty of explaining scientific subjects in a manner that could be widely understood. In those writings that will be longest remembered are some on electricity, on lightning conductors and on the pioneers of science. In his later years he gave much time both to research and to speculation on the problems of telepathy, subliminal consciousness and the survival of the dead. Most of the honors that can fall to a great scientist in Great Britain were accorded to Sir Oliver at one time or another, including the presidency of the British Association. He was a great figure in an age remarkable for scientific achievement.

Expressions of thankfulness to the United States for supplying the British Empire with war materials are somewhat wasted. It is the sentiment of sympathy with British peoples and with the cause for which they are fighting that makes for the growing feeling of friendliness between the two democracies. After all, the war materials are being purchased for cash, for value received, and profits for the Americans go with all the purchases. It is the British Navy that makes it possible to have these purchases delivered to their destination. It is to that great instrument that thanks are due for enabling purely commercial transactions to be continued.

Life goes on much as usual in London, despite the enemy bombing of the great capital. The imperturbability of Londoners is well known, and it finds expression in the notice displayed in a block of flats: "Visitors wishing to be called during an air raid should leave their names with the hall porter."

NOT ALONE

"Now we stand alone," let us retract that statement. Those who go forth to Armageddon never stand alone. They have an Ally whose loyalty is perfection, whose arm is omnipotent—Royal Gazette, Hamilton, Bermuda.

But if the Lord take pleasure in England, and if He will do us good—He is very able to bear us up! Let the difficulties be whatsoever they will, we shall in His strength be able to encounter with them.—Oliver Cromwell.

Bird Feathers

Apparently parents are alike, no matter what kind or breed. Passing the Empress Hotel the other day a baby robin was noticed on the lawn near some trees, just having fallen from the nest. Although unable to fly, the youngster had survived the fall without injury. Several kiddies, noticing the bird, were engaged in petting it and thinking darkly of bird-napping and taking it home with them. The perturbation of the parent robin was intense. In fact, there was almost a bird-battle. And joining in the fun were pigeons, sparrows and every other bird in the neighborhood. Finally allowing the youngster to head toward the bushes, the boys departed. Whereupon the parent robin certainly gave the baby a thorough going-over, both for possible injury, and for scaring the daylight out of them. We're willing to bet that bird makes his first flight under convey—H.E.M.

Return of Willie

On his return from a visit to a small Mainland city, Bill, the friend Street barber, invited a friend home to supper, much against the wishes of his better half. After the man had eaten and departed, Mr. Bill caustically remarked, "I just knew that man could not be trusted. He walked out with a towel." Bill wanted to know if it was a good one. "One of our best. It was the one I got from the hotel on our holiday," Mrs. Bill replied. "The first day of the hotel Willie loudly complained about the service. 'Are you the waiter who took my order?'" he asked in the dining room. "Yes, sir," a man replied. "You are looking well. How are your grandchildren?" Willie snorted. "Then the barber grumbled, 'I cannot eat this soup.' The waiter wanted to know what was wrong with it. 'I have no spoon,' Bill smirked. 'Nothing seemed to be set on the table.' This steak is too small. Either bring me a magnifying glass or put it on a smaller plate." Willie moaned. "This has gone far enough. Don't you ever become embarrassed?" Mrs. Bill sniffed. "Oh no, my financially."

Willie barked. "They tell me at the shop why the chamberlaine conversationalists," Bill commented. "Quite right. You never open your mouth unless you have nothing to say," his better half interjected. "Is that so?" Bill chirped. "Nevertheless, I often hold the key to the situation." Bill chuckled. "Yes, after somebody else has picked the lock."—G.B.

Glancing Over Sport

Now that the British Columbia open golf championship, which was scheduled for next month at the Uplands course, has been definitely canceled, plans have been put forward on the Mainland to stage a Western open title event on one of the Vancouver golf courses. The chief reason why the championship Yankees are hovering in and out of the first division in the American Baseball League is that they are last in team batting, far behind the rest of the clubs. However, the Yanks are making determined bid to overtake the leaders and are ahead in team fielding, which means the defence is holding them within striking distance and their offence pulling them towards the second division. Freddy Clunk, who has been pro, recently resigned and is now working in a local lumber yard. Billy Soome steps into the boxing limelight and turns the already "muddled" middleweight division upside down. He trimmed Tony Lae, recognized in forty-six states as champion, the other night. Billy had previously soundly trounced Ken Overton, the two-state titleholder. Therefore he must be the uncrowned champion—J.D.

DEATH AVENGED
The death of the three men was speedily avenged. Within a few minutes three raiders came toppling to earth, their wreckage strewn over the desert divide. Two remaining machines of the squadron limped away badly disabled. Lieut. Wheeler lost his life in attempting to rescue a British Tommie who was hit in the leg by a splinter. As Lieut. Wheeler was running toward the stricken soldier, a high-explosive bomb burst nearby, killing the Canadian officer instantly. Jennings and Shaw were struck down by fragments of a bomb which landed in a square. Sgt. F. T. McAuley, Toronto, suffered superficial neck wounds from the same blast. Two others, Privates E. T. Johnstone and N. W. Morris, both of Montreal, sought shelter behind a sand-bagged parapet ten yards away and escaped unscathed.

OFFICE WRECKED

Lieut. A. A. Burne, Hamilton, preparing to fulfil an appointment when the raiders appeared, was obliged to change his plans when he discovered his office had been wrecked by an explosion. He sent the following note to the party he had arranged to meet: "I am afraid my office is a bit upset and I may be a trifle late for the appointment." Later he established himself in temporary quarters and hung up a sign reading "Business as usual." Sgt. W. H. Dunn and Sgt. H. Harper, both of London, Ont. paid high tribute to the marksmanship and News Briefs—The lumber for the addition to the Naval Hospital is being unloaded at Esquimalt. Grading for the Esquimalt tramway is practically over, the graders having reached Esquimalt town last night. Upwards of 500 persons have signed a petition against the issuing of a liquor licence on the James Bay side. The Straths cable was working yesterday, and the benefits of its renewal were largely enjoyed by the private individuals. James Brady, mining engineer, will visit East and West Kootenay, including Illecillewaet, the mining camps on the Upper Columbia River and lakes, also Nelson, Hot Spring and other camps on Kootenay Lake, about the end of this month.

Hornby Island News—Reports from Hornby Island bring encouraging news of the harvest results, the wheat, oats, corn and barley turning out very satisfactorily. Messrs. Grant and McGee have built a handsome new cottage which is soon to be supplemented by another which Mr. Gladding, a new settler, is erecting. Joseph Hunter has secured weekly steamer service instead of a fortnightly one as heretofore.

For the Zoo—The steamer Sir James Douglas, which arrived from the American side on Friday evening, had on board a seal that the crew captured on Dungeness sandspit. It has been presented to the park committee and is at present keeping company with the Canadian seal that has been in the lake for the past few weeks.

Sydney Child Voices Thanks For Volunteer Help in Registration Here

Although at the farthest point from the Dominion capital, registration returns from the Victoria electoral district were the first to be received in Ottawa. It is believed by Sydney Child, registrar, in a statement issued by him yesterday thanking all those who helped in the registration here.

The results of the registration in Victoria were made to Ottawa on Thursday evening, and since then all cards and records in connection with the national stocktaking have been forwarded to the capital.

Credit for this accomplishment, according to Mr. Child, is due not to any one person but to the wonderful co-operation extended by so many willing workers.

Mr. Child voiced thanks to Government and civic leaders and officials, volunteer workers, the press and radio, and the general public for the co-operation that made possible the smooth registration of 45,877 people in the Victoria riding. The registrar urged all voluntary deputy registrars to return their appointment papers to the registration office at 737 Fort Street immediately. This is important because Ottawa keeps these appointments on file to enable a check to be made of the signatures on the registration certificates issued by the deputies.

The final figures show 3,927 single men and the ages of nineteen and forty-five, the group from which the first drafts for military service will be drawn.

CANADIAN GUNS DOWN BOMBERS

Ground Crews Smash Three Enemy Raiders Somewhere in England

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND Aug. 23 (CP).—Three German bombers with a combined complement of twelve men fell prey in a recent attack to the unerring marksmanship of Canadian ground crews, who are playing a prominent role in beating back the assault of Goering's air raiders.

Caught in a withering barrage of fire from the ground, the Germans jettisoned their cargo in an effort to escape. Several of the bombs dropped at random over a wide area failed to explode, but two that crashed on a square and nearby roadway killed three Canadians.

The victims were: Lieut. Leslie Wheeler, Moncton, N.B.; Sgt. F. E. Jennings, Verdun, Que., and Cpl. C. Shaw, Toronto. These casualties were announced at Ottawa August 18. The date of the German attack was not given, but it was understood it took place during last week's mass aerial onslaught.

Wheeler was running toward the stricken soldier, a high-explosive bomb burst nearby, killing the Canadian officer instantly. Two others, Privates E. T. Johnstone and N. W. Morris, both of Montreal, sought shelter behind a sand-bagged parapet ten yards away and escaped unscathed.

OFFICE WRECKED

Lieut. A. A. Burne, Hamilton, preparing to fulfil an appointment when the raiders appeared, was obliged to change his plans when he discovered his office had been wrecked by an explosion. He sent the following note to the party he had arranged to meet: "I am afraid my office is a bit upset and I may be a trifle late for the appointment." LOCAL RETURNS MADE SWIFTLY

Sydney Child Voices Thanks For Volunteer Help in Registration Here

Although at the farthest point from the Dominion capital, registration returns from the Victoria electoral district were the first to be received in Ottawa. It is believed by Sydney Child, registrar, in a statement issued by him yesterday thanking all those who helped in the registration here.

The results of the registration in Victoria were made to Ottawa on Thursday evening, and since then all cards and records in connection with the national stocktaking have been forwarded to the capital.

Credit for this accomplishment, according to Mr. Child, is due not to any one person but to the wonderful co-operation extended by so many willing workers.

Mr. Child voiced thanks to Government and civic leaders and officials, volunteer workers, the press and radio, and the general public for the co-operation that made possible the smooth registration of 45,877 people in the Victoria riding. The registrar urged all voluntary deputy registrars to return their appointment papers to the registration office at 737 Fort Street immediately. This is important because Ottawa keeps these appointments on file to enable a check to be made of the signatures on the registration certificates issued by the deputies.

The final figures show 3,927 single men and the ages of nineteen and forty-five, the group from which the first drafts for military service will be drawn.

CANADIAN GUNS DOWN BOMBERS

Ground Crews Smash Three Enemy Raiders Somewhere in England

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND Aug. 23 (CP).—Three German bombers with a combined complement of twelve men fell prey in a recent attack to the unerring marksmanship of Canadian ground crews, who are playing a prominent role in beating back the assault of Goering's air raiders.

Caught in a withering barrage of fire from the ground, the Germans jettisoned their cargo in an effort to escape. Several of the bombs dropped at random over a wide area failed to explode, but two that crashed on a square and nearby roadway killed three Canadians.

The victims were: Lieut. Leslie Wheeler, Moncton, N.B.; Sgt. F. E. Jennings, Verdun, Que., and Cpl. C. Shaw, Toronto. These casualties were announced at Ottawa August 18. The date of the German attack was not given, but it was understood it took place during last week's mass aerial onslaught.

The death of the three men was speedily avenged. Within a few minutes three raiders came toppling to earth, their wreckage strewn over the desert divide. Two remaining machines of the squadron limped away badly disabled.

Resolution Submitted to Montreal Council Aimed at Gazette President

MONTREAL, Aug. 23 (CP).—City Council Thursday left over until its next meeting a resolution submitted by J. M. The resolution claimed that Bassett should be interned because the Montreal Gazette published the anti-registration statement for which Mayor Camille Houde was interned.

Savignac's resolution claimed "the same treatment and the same measure" should be applied to Bassett as to Houde because "according to the admission of The Gazette the Houde statement was published and circulated by this paper on the 3rd of August and given to The Canadian Press."

CHAPTER VI

Her coming-out party when she was eighteen was still discussed in Newton as the most elaborate party ever given south of New York. Yet on the morning of her party she could not think of anything except the scheme that had been revolving in her mind for weeks.

Alan had come that night reluctantly, and again in rented evening clothes. The sight of him, his blond hair smooth, his face tanned from tennis, coming to pay his respects to her father and her was still remarkably clear. For a few seconds she had felt that the two people she loved most in the world were beside her. As the evening wore on and more than a hundred people ate and drank and danced to music of an orchestra imported from New York, she saw her scheme materializing. Before midnight, Alan, pried with the champagne he had never tasted before, was drunk. At midnight she had led him to her car and was driving toward the next town for a marriage licence.

It had been astonishingly simple. Everyone obliged Edwin Burke—the sleepy clerk, the sleepy clergyman, his sleepy wife and daughter. In an old-fashioned parlor at two o'clock in the morning they had been married while she firmly held Alan's arm. But during the drive back to Newton his head had cleared, they had quarrelled violently, he had struck her and taken the wheel, and when they reached the lighted house where no one had missed them, he had called her father to the library and told him what Edwin had done. Then he had walked out of the house and she had not seen him since that night.

The papers made much of the story, though Edwin was in Florida the following week. And she had come home after a month to bury her father, knowing that she had disappointed him, that she had failed to uphold his high standards of honesty and decency, and that he had died hurt over what she had done to Alan. That was the greater bitterness, her father's hurt and disappointment. The marriage had been annulled while tongues had been loosened and fingers pointed. An heiress, she had left Newton forever, she thought then. Since then her life had been a series of fast luxury liners, fast planes, new faces, new places, parties, clothes—and men. She was news. Newton had read about her broken engagement to an impoverished count, her argument with a certain foreign consul over a lost passport, the theft of her jewels in Cannes, her singing in a New York night club. Now admitting her guilt, her shame, her helplessness, her weariness, she quietly cried herself to sleep.

When Amy came into her room an hour later, she pushed back Edwin's hair from her moist forehead. Like a tired, frightened child who had strayed too far, Edwin had at last found her way home. The next day, Carol, in uniform, received her father's patients, took their temperatures and quieted their fears. By noon the office was empty. She changed to a silk frock the color of corn, and joined her father for luncheon. They had breakfasted at different times, and she knew that he now would mention the large photograph of Edwin which had appeared in the morning paper along with the account of the accident.

Last night's scores:
Seniors—Jokers 15, Alerts 14.
Juniors—Oak Drug 20, Douglas Tire 12.

More than 500 boxers fans left the Victoria Sports Centre last night with a feeling that Coach Gus Munro's boys about building his club for the post-season play-off was far from an idle threat. The black-clad stickmen, fighting through four hectic sessions, came from behind to eke out 15-14 victory over the Alerts, in one of the most rugged exhibitions of the rugged stick pastime witnessed this season at the Willows.

Scrapy "Pud" Pridham, small of stature, but full of fight and boxing ability, came through with the winning tally in the dying minutes of a game that had the customers on the Jokers' bench many times during the evening. There was considerable cheering and excitement when Jimmy Smith, better known perhaps in Canadian football circles, bagged the tying marker, but pandemonium broke loose in the large building when Pridham snagged the winning marker.

Robbed of what looked like a certain marker only seconds before when Goalie Ernie Gawley kicked his shot out, Smith "batted" the rebound into the net, and the big scoreboard showed the teams slated 14-14. But the yell, and excitement at this stage of the thriller were mild to the outbreak when Pridham snagged the winning marker. Taking a pass close to the Alerts' goal, Pridham fired a sizzling shot, and the Alerts' goalie found it impossible to find the score before the "official" horn, operated so efficiently by Timekeeper Len Passmore, denoted the end of the game.

THREE NEW PLAYERS

Jokers trotted out three new players, George "Porky" Andrews, McKelvie, a member of the R.C.A.F., reported to have played in the East and at Vancouver, and Glen Robinson, better known as a member of many was performed by Rev. J. Rhys Evans in a setting of all white gladioli, pompon dahlias and tail tapers, before a decorated white archway, at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a dark brown wool costume suit, with matching accessories and a corsage bouquet of purple orchids. She was attended by her sisters, Miss Ione Culliton, in a frock of golden sheer crepe, and Miss Catherine Culliton, in teal blue. They both wore corsage bouquets of Tishman roses. Their brother, Mr. Thomas Keith Culliton, was best man. A reception, at which additional relatives and friends were present, was held later. Mrs. Culliton received the guests in a frock of wine crepe, assisted by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Hatch, who came from Flint, Michigan, for the wedding. Following a honeymoon at Sprout Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Tye will make their home in Victoria. Assisting at supper were Miss Mable Sughrue, Miss Thomas Culliton, Miss Doris Sherman, Mrs. Blanchard Reimer, Mrs. James C. Payne, The Dalles, Oregon; Mrs. Robert L. Harding, Fairbanks, Alaska; Miss Yvonne Nicole, Mrs. Charles Bjornson and Mrs. Robert L. Laing.

LORIMER-AITKEN
The marriage took place last evening at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Daniel Walker, Rockland Avenue, of Alberta Acres, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Aitken, 35 Burnside Road, and Mr. George Lorimer, second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Lorimer, Sooke, in the presence of both families. The bride was given away by her father, and wore an afternoon frock of powder blue lace with white accessories and a corsage bouquet of roses and gardenias. Miss Frances Tatham was bridesmaid, wearing a silk frock in a deeper shade of blue with white accessories and a corsage spray of roses and gardenias. The bride's brother, Mr. George Lorimer, supported her. About fifty guests were entertained in Terry's Rose Room, where a profusion of pink and white feathery asters had been arranged. Pink candles and a deep bowl of pink and white carnations in the centre adorned the supper table, and at one end the bride cut the handsome cake, which had been iced by Mrs. W. Locke, Sooke. On return from their honeymoon on the Mainland, Mr. and Mrs. Lorimer will make their home in Victoria.

People are asked to leave bottles on verandas to facilitate collection. Residents in Cadboro Bay, Quana-wood and Ten Mile Point districts are asked to leave their bottles at the Cadboro Bay postoffice and general store of H. V. Hobbs.

Pit Prop Trade—British Columbia lumber interests are unlikely to share in the supply of pit props to the United Kingdom until the British Timber Control Board needs props so badly that it is prepared to provide ship space or pay the difference in freight charges between Western and Eastern Canada. Such was the opinion given yesterday by the trade extension branch of the Department of Trade and Industry. He said props could be produced here as cheaply as elsewhere, but freight charges made it impossible for the province to compete.

SOLDIERS' HUT
OPENED HEREKnights of Columbus Establishment Dedicated by
R. W. Mayhew

"I was assured by Brigadier W. W. Foster, just prior to leaving Ottawa, that the sum of $10,000 would be expended on the erection of a suitable soldiers' home here," said R. W. Mayhew, M.P. for Victoria, when he officially opened the Knights of Columbus hut at the Queen's Peace Church, Esquimalt, last night. Mr. Mayhew said that the hut was a fine symbol of generosity and thoughtfulness on the part of the citizens of Victoria, and indicative of their desire to do what they could to give comfort to the men in uniform.

Also addressing the large audience during the opening ceremonies, under the chairmanship of Frank Doherty, were Brigadier C. V. Stockwell, D.O.C.; Lieut.-Commander R. P. Kingscote, R.C.N., and Wing Commander A. H. Hull, R.C.A.F., representing Air Commodore A. E. Godfrey, who was in Vancouver. "It is to be regretted that there are not more huts of this type in the city for the benefit of the men. This is certainly a fine step in the right direction," said Lieut.-Commander Kingscote.

ARMY APPRECIATION

Brigadier Stockwell, in thanking the Knights of Columbus on behalf of the army for the facilities made available to the men, said that such a move was greatly appreciated, and he would do his utmost to spread word of the opening of the hut among the troops.

The "hut," which is the basement of the Queen's Peace Church in Esquimalt, is fitted with games facilities for the men, including ping-pong tables, quoits and other games, as well as having comfortable reading and writing rooms, with all attendant facilities. Plans are under way for the provision of entertainment for the men on Sunday evenings. The hut will be open every evening during the week.

Comfort and ease for the visitors will be the keynote of the hut, with every consideration given the convenience of the men in uniform who visit the church.

OTHERS PRESENT

Attending the opening ceremonies, in addition to the representatives of the three armed forces, were Capt. James Lightbody, D.S.O., T.D.; Capt. W. Hobart Molson; Reeve Alex Lockley, of Esquimalt; Rev. Father A. B. Wood, and Rev. Arthur Bischlager, senior chaplain to the Royal Canadian Navy; Msgr. A. G. Baker, V.G., Capt. the Rev. Alan Gardiner, Adjutant, Charles Watt, of the Salvation Army; W. T. Strath, M.P.P., representing the Y.M.C.A.; Harold Butters, representing the Canadian Legion War Services; Leo Sweeney, of the Vancouver Knights of Columbus, and George E. MacDonald and A. St. Martin, of the Knights of Columbus, Victoria.

Credit was given the Catholic Youth Organization for the work it had done on the rooms and the decorations, while Rev. Father Wood was commended on the good work he had done in promoting the location of the hut in the church.

"VIRGO"
If August 24 is your birthday, the best hours for this date are from 10 a.m. until noon, from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 8 to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m. from 6 to 8 p.m. and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

Do not count on being able to do everything by ordinary routine on this date, for experience has shown that it will require your using original ideas to cope with them successfully. You must have confidence in your ability to overcome any difficulty that might arise. A great deal of valuable time will be wasted in seeking advice from Tom, Dick and Harry, regarding matters that they are not qualified to pass on, so it might be well to depend on your own judgment.

You ought to feel full of "pop and vim," and be in a position to be conducive for you to have a surplus of energy and a desire to be very active. Do things with moderation and you may escape some very unpleasant consequences that will result from a lack of it. A surplus of dignity will be as bad as a deficiency of it, so act in a manner that will inspire respect and not ridicule. Married and engaged couples must be careful that none of their habits prove to be obnoxious to their beloved one.

If a woman and August 24 is your birthday, be careful that your determination to have your own way in little things does not interfere with your future happiness. To arrive at correct conclusions regarding daily quarrels you will have to do a lot of logical reasoning and never yield to the temptation of accepting the first idea that comes into your head. You ought to possess a talent for acting, painting, designing, selling, teaching, writing or operating a business of your own. If you will remember it takes two to make a success of married life, your marriage is apt to be a happy one.

The child born on August 24 is generally inquisitive. But he desires knowledge rather than the satisfaction of simple curious impulses. Children born on this date should be encouraged to ask questions. Sentative youngsters born under the sign of Virgo suffer keenly if they are misjudged or are subjected to overdoes of strict discipline.

If a man and August 24 is your

Artist Sees Individual Characters of Dionnes

After Sixteen Days of Study, Painter Able to Summarize Distinct Differences in Famous Quintuplet Sisters—All Have Sense of Humor

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (CP)—Artist Willy Pogany, back from his "most exciting portrait commission"—sixteen days in Callander, Ont., to paint the Dionne quintuplets—said today they are perhaps more individualized than most children of their ages and have a lively sense of humor.

For instance, when Emilie carried her toy monkey Toto toward the nursery window, where the quints could see visitors peeking in, Yvonne called "No, no, don't take it there. They'll think we are six of us, not five."

The quints also derived considerable merriment from Pogany's French, which is Parisian. They laughed at his speech and even mimicked his idiom.

The six-year-old sisters were "very happy" as they watched him sketching and when he finished and they recognized themselves, they were excited and brought their own drawings to show him. Emilie had drawn Toto and the others had done sketches of flowers and houses.

Photographs have not shown the quints truly, Pogany claimed. "They are not distinct," he explained, "their faces are not symmetric. Their characters do not stand out in photographs."

Pogany's portrait method is to seek one prevailing characteristic—"to sum up the person." Once this has been decided on, he considers different poses that might emphasize the trait. Then he tries different costumes to find the one most harmonious to his conception.

THEIR CHARACTERS

In this way, he arrived at the following characterization of the quints.

"Marie is the shy one. Whenever the sisters play she is always in back of the others. But she is very affectionate. She always picked a flower for me."

Pogany sketched Marie in an old-fashioned bonnet, a yellow rose in her hand, her eyes looking demurely away.

"Celeste is the lady—very fastidious." He sketched her in a prim little hat, tied with a ribbon beneath her chin, wearing gloves to provide a formal note, and a bag in her hand.

Annette is "the musician." He painted her playing the piano with two fingers. Pogany said she has an excellent ear and has learned to play Offenbach's "Barcarolle" with two fingers.

Emilie, he described as "the mischievous one," adding, "she is the only one who is different and wants to do something different."

Yvonne is "the mother." Pogany said "wherever there is any trouble, Yvonne settles it. The others always call her. They run to her and tell her what they are doing."

Miss Betty Martin, New York Visitor, Tells How She Rose in Few Years From "Co-ed" To Present Important Position

Miss Betty Martin, the voice of "Tommy the Mouse" in "How the Man in the Moon Lost His Face," the brilliant radio story written by the clever English author, Wilbur Brundage, has been a visitor in Victoria for the past ten days. She has been resting her voice in Chemunus, where she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Moyle, but left yesterday for Seattle, en route for New York, where she will begin a new recording of jingles for "Mother Goose" in the Columbia studios.

"How did I get into recording?" Through audition, she replied in the course of a chat yesterday. "In the Fall of 1936 I just arrived in New York from the University of Washington, Seattle. I am a Phi Epsilon. I went to the club in New York City. There I met Bob Daniels, who was teaching at the time in the Juilliard School of Music. He introduced me to Marie Finney, who was head of the educational department of the R.C.A. Victor Company. I, with many hundreds of others, sang for her and had the unexpected excitement of being chosen to do the singing records for children. Wasn't it thrilling? So thrilling that I went to bed for three days!"

Miss Martin proceeded to tell of her evolution from the schoolgirl to the seasoned professional which she now considers herself to be.

NOT SO EASY

"It wasn't so easy as it looked from the outside. I say this because I want girls to understand that it takes hard work and tenacity to become a 'career woman' in New York. It isn't so simple as it sometimes looks to a co-ed in a small town. In the first place there's terrific competition. Then one is up against the girl who knows someone on the inside. Then there's temperamental constitution and the ability to stand the nervous strain of having doors slammed in one's face. . . . Once one has mastered the art of opening the door and staying on the right side—which in the last analysis means mastering one's own self—the first chapter in success is begun," says this seasoned artist.

To make a long story short, Miss Martin is now established in New York. Her first assignment was recording for the schools of Texas through the American Book Company—largest book company in New York. The second assignment was for Ginn & Co. of Boston, also for R.C.A. Victor. Last Fall Miss Martin recorded a little album called "Our Songs" for C. C. Birchard & Co. of Boston. This was for the Columbia records. The very last thing she had to do in New York was the "Nonsense Alphabet" by Edward Lear, set to music specially for her by the late Charles Naginski, who had just won the Prix de Rome a few months before his tragic death by drowning a few weeks ago. At the same time she did Moussorgsky in the Nursery.

MANY ROLES

"I have been everything from the Mean Old Nurse and the Rattle-snake to sweet little Mishka in 'The Hobby Horse' and Tommy the Mouse in 'How the Man in the Moon Lost His Face.' Of all my parts I prefer Vassia in 'His Pranks With the Beetle.' I wonder how many Victoria children know any of these characters."

Miss Martin, who was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Howard E. Ellis, of Seattle, is flying back to New York at the beginning of September. She will take with her her small black cocker, Cinderella (better known as Cinder), which is her "black cat" so far as being a mascot in her work is concerned.

He has always brought me good luck," she says, betraying the professional's belief in mascots.

Teacher to Teach Men How to Fly

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23 (CP)—

Cut near the northeast border of Philadelphia, beyond its factories and office buildings, a trim young brown-haired "schoolmarm" in ankle socks is teaching men to fly. Her "prize" is a little lemon-yellow monoplane, and her twenty-two pupils range from teen-age boys to middle-aged businessmen.

She is Helen Richey, one of the most experienced pilots in the United States. Employed by the Northeastern Airport here, Miss Richey is the twenty-nine-year-old daughter of a former superintendent of schools in McKeesport, Pa., and had "my mind made up to be a flier before I even learned how" in Pittsburgh nine years ago.

Miss Richey was co-pilot for the late Amelia Earhart in the Bendix air races of September, 1936. They flew the same plane which Miss Earhart used on her ill-fated attempt to circle the globe.

With the late Frances Marshall, Miss Richey set a woman's endurance record above Miami, Fla., seven years ago.

Occidental friends of China, as well as members of the Chinese community of Victoria, are showing sympathetic and active interest in the two-day tea which has been organized by the Women's Association of the Chinese United Church here on behalf of the funds to aid refugees from war-torn China.

The tea is being held in the Chinese Freemasons' Hall, 617 Esplanade Street, where the association president, Mrs. Wong Hung, the treasurer, Mrs. Tong Yen, Mrs. Chung Yet Jung, and other members of the ladies' committee greet visitors, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Chow Wing. The hall, with its many unusual photographs, paintings, embroideries and elaborately-carved ceremonial Freemason furnishings, holds a fund of interest for guests, and delicious refreshments are served from tables centred with dainty arrangements of cosmos and galliardias. Young people of the Chinese community are acting as servers.

Among the interesting objects displayed is an autographed photograph of General and Mrs. Chiang Kai-Shek recently sent to the local Chinese United Church Women's Association in appreciation of its effort on behalf of China; and beside it is Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek's book, "Messages in War and Peace," in which she mentions the gift of $2,000 sent by the Chinese women of Victoria. This also being a presentation by the author.

To assist this two-day tea, which will continue from 1 to 11 p.m. today, some of the Up-Island Chinese groups have sent donations ranging from $5 up to the $100 sent by the Chinese people of Port Allen.

ABOVE is shown a corner of the lovely gardens of "Kah-naw," the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, the Up-lands, which have been lent for the Soroptimist Club garden party on Wednesday, August 28. The gates will open at 3 o'clock and at 3:30 Mrs. Reed Paige Clark will formally declare the fete open. The committee hopes that as many visitors as possible will arrive at the earlier hour and take the opportunity to explore the gardens before tea.

There are many delightful spots in the beautifully-landscaped grounds, which embrace about two-and-a-half acres. One of the features which should not be overlooked is the handsome hedge of Monterey cedar, grown from seed planted by the original owners, Mr. and Mrs. Sayward Wilson. The hedge is now about eleven feet high, and visitors driving through the Up-lands frequently stop to admire it. The customary garden-fete diversions will be found: afternoon tea, in charge of Mrs. Fred Robertson and Miss Dora Atkins; cold drinks and ice cream, in charge of Miss Doris Holmes and assistant; a golf-putting contest, Mr. Fred M. McGregor, and various other games in charge of Mr. Fred Ash. Among the attractive prizes offered to winners of the contests are five gallons of gasoline, scrip prizes presented by the B. M. Clarke Company and Bert Waude, a bag, a lamp, and two Vachel Field books, autographed by the author. The fete is being held for the Soroptimist war charities fund.

MAITLAND PITCHES GASMEN TO 1-0 WIN OVER THE ATHLETICS

Big Right-hander Twirls No-Hit No-Run Six-Inning Victory Over Tillicum Athletics to Even Up the Senior Baseball Series—Pitzer & Nex Drive Across Winning Run in Second Inning

SERIES STANDING

Tillicum Athletics	4	2	.500

Last Night's Score
Pitzer & Nex, 1, Tillicum Athletics, 0.
Next game, Wednesday, Pitzer & Nex vs. Tillicum Athletics, Royal Athletic Park, at 8:45 o'clock.

Hurling six-inning no-hit ball, "Copper" Ray Maitland, Pitzer & Nex mound ace, last night pitched his clubmates to a 1-0 victory over the Tillicum Athletics in the fourth game of the play-offs for the city baseball championship and the Rithet Cup. The outcome left the best-of-seven series sewn up as tightly as the patch on grand-father's pants.

Maitland turned in a masterful display on the hillock, and had the clubbers' heavy hitters eating out of his hand all evening. He dished up a smart variety of offerings, and tossed up a scintillating ball that left the Tillicum standers at the plate and watching it speed by. The big right-hander was never in trouble, and only once during the abbreviated contest did the Athletics get a runner as far as the hot corner. "Twenty-one" batters faced Maitland, and of that number only six got on base. Four of those reached the initial sack when the gasmen's hurler issued free transportation.

SCORES IN SECOND
Pitzer & Nex scored their lone run and the only marker in the ball game in the second inning. Noel Morgan opened with a stinging double to the left-center field, and scored on Henry Harris' hot single to leftfield. Gasmen were only able to punch out one more base hit in the ball game.

"Schoolboy" Rowe, pitching for the clubbers, hurled nice ball, but it was not good enough to match the no-hit performance of Ray Maitland. Athletics' young twirler gave up three safeties, two in the second when the opposition garnered their one big run, and another in the fifth, a single by Barney Barnswell. Rowe faired four.

Pitzer & Nex came up with a smart double play in the fourth inning with Barney Barnswell and Noel Morgan sharing in the killing. Gasmen's second racker took Art Chapman's grounder, forcing Casey at second and tossing out the batter at the initial bag.

Harry Barber, Athletics' left-fielder, came in for quite an ovation when he pulled down a smart catch in the outer gardens in the third frame. With two men down and one man on, Noel Morgan faced out a

LARGE ENTRY FOR TOURNEY

Record Assured for Annual Totem Pole Golf Event At Jasper Park

JASPER PARK LODGE, Alta., Aug. 24.—An entry list which tops all previous records by a substantial margin already has been posted with executives of Jasper's annual totem pole golf tournament. It was reported today. With the opening date September 1, still a week away, 250 golfers already have registered for the competition, firmly establishing the totem pole as most popular of Canadian mountain resort golf events.

Don Thompson, long-driving ace from Portland, Oregon, who copped the Totem Pole Trophy for the American West Coast contingent last Fall, is listed among the entrants, as is Seattle's threat, Ralph Whaley. Barbara Winn, winner of the women's event in 1939, also will be on hand to defend her crown, while her opposition in the finals, Mrs. W. R. Cumming of Vancouver, will make another attempt to lift the title.

As in previous seasons, bulk of entrants to this year's tourney are from United States, although virtually every city in Canada will be represented. The Pacific Coast's large entry will come by way of Vancouver, traveling on a special train of Pullmans, only train of its kind to be operated to any golf tournament in North America.

HUNTS GARAGE DEFEATS UNITS

Scoring three runs in the fifth and last inning of the abbreviated contest, Hunt's Garage last night eked out a 6-5 victory over the Units in the third and final game of the women's senior "B" softball play-offs.

The victory gave the Sidney nine the busting and the right to meet the Mainland winners in the provincial championships. Score by innings:
Units 005 00-5
Hunt's Garage 120 03-6
Batteries—Meddler and Hildebrand; Marsh and Jones.

STEVEDORES WIN
Victoria Longshoremen, senior "A" Vancouver Island champions, defeated H.M.C. Dockyard, 9-3, in a Calver Cup semi-final fixture played last night.

HEADS TRAPSHOOTERS

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 23 (AP).—E. H. Wolfe, thirty-eight-year-old auditor of Charleston, W. Va., broke 98 of 100 today to win the grand American handicap trapshoot, highest honor in the clay target sport. He defeated a field of 827 at the forty-first annual event, finishing one target ahead of three other shooters.

CRICKET MATCH OFF

The scheduled friendly match this afternoon between the Five C's and Victoria Club has been canceled, it was announced yesterday by officials.

Hurls No-Hitter For Pitzer & Nex

RAY MAITLAND

MOUND ace of Manager Bert Nex' gasmen, 1939 baseball champions, who last night hurled Pitzer & Nex to a 1-0 victory over the Tillicum Athletics, in the fourth game of the city championship series for the Rithet Cup. Displaying his best form of the season, "Copper" Maitland pitched no-hit ball in the abbreviated contest, and had the clubbers on his hip all evening. He dished up plenty of variety and a scintillating ball that had the league leaders cutting at the evening breeze. Maitland is one of the most improved hurlers in the senior circuit, this season, and has been doing some smart pitching for the defending champions. The outcome left the series tied at two games each, with the fifth fixture carded for next Wednesday evening at 8:45 o'clock.

CLUB CONCLUDES ACTIVE SEASON

Spencer's Golf Club concluded a successful season of activities and social events at a well-attended banquet at the Uplands Golf Club on Wednesday evening.

Teddy Groom, club vice-president, presented Leslie Bradley with the Whiteman Perpetual Cup, which he won during the club's thirty-six-hole medal play handicap golf tournament held at Uplands with a low net of 154. He was also presented with a miniature trophy. James Reside captured the low gross honors with 168, and was presented with a silver cigarette case.

ENTERTAINMENT
Following the presentations, entertainment was given in the form of vocal solos by Miss Bernice Unwin, accompanied by Miss Margaret George and Master Sandy Turgeon, piano solos and magical tricks. J. R. Boston, master of ceremonies for the evening, conducted a slush song.

Guests introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Street, past president of the Sports and Social Club; Victor Simmonds, president of the Sports and Social Club; Mr. Pearce, editor of the store paper, who handled the club's advertising; and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barnes.

During the season, business was carried on by the following executive: Garnett Baker, president; Teddy Groom, vice-president; J. B. Barnes, secretary; and James Reside, J. Morgan and H. Fletcher, committee.

Cards Move Into Third Spot by 5-2 Win Over Phillies

St. Louis Club Continues Climb in National League Race—Reds Beaten Again—Dodgers Lose in Eleventh—Yankees Beat Cleveland, 5-2—DiMaggio Smacks Another Homer

By The Canadian Press
The Pirates and New York Giants put on nine innings of wild baseball yesterday, and the Bucs came up with a 13-10 victory. The defeat dropped Giants into fourth place in the National League standings. Carl Hubbell was whacked for four runs in the first inning and was charged with the loss.

Old Man Nemesis—Casey Stengel and his Boston Bees—put a hand on Cincinnati Reds and the National League leaders dropped another ball game, 7-2. It was Paul Derringer's fifth straight defeat.

The rampant St. Louis Cardinals sliced another game off Cincinnati Reds' first-place advantage in the National League as they won their eighth in a row, beating Philadelphia, 5-2, while Reds lost to Boston.

The victory gave Cards undisputed possession of third place. They trail Cincinnati by eleven games and second-place Brooklyn by only four and a half.

Pete Reiser's bat threw to the plate on Hank Leiber's grounder, with the bases loaded and none out in the eleventh inning, let in a run to give the Cubs a 5-4 victory over Brooklyn Dodgers.

Steve Sundra, gave New York Yankees a 5-3 victory over the league-leading Cleveland Indians, the Yankees' fifth straight triumph over the American League's top two teams.

That left the world champions just three games out of second place and only seven eastern of the Indians, whose lead over second-place Detroit was cut to four games.

Sundra delivered the pay-off punch in the seventh inning when he singled to score Babe Dahlgren and Frankie Crosetti, and break up a 2-2 tie.

HITS ANOTHER HOMER

Joe DiMaggio, of the Yankees, hit his twenty-seventh homer in the fourth inning, and Jeff Heath and Roy Weatherly hit homers for the Indians.

Jimmy Bloodworth's single in the thirteenth inning scored Johnny Weis with the run which gave Washington and Pitcher Ken Chase a 3-2 victory over Chicago.

George Caster turned in a brilliant three-inning relief trick as Athletics came from behind to beat St. Louis Browns, 6-4.

Caster replaced rookie Southpaw Porter Vaughan, at the start, of the seventh and pitched three hitless innings.

BITSY GRANT WINS

SEIGNIORY CLUB, Que., Aug. 23 (CP).—Bitsy Grant, of Atlanta, Ga., advanced through the first round of the eleventh annual Seignior Club invitation tennis tournament today, when he defeated Peter MacKenzie, of Ottawa, 6-3, 6-2.

Canada's singles champion, Don McDiarmid, of Ottawa, advanced by the default of J. L. Webb, of Newport, Vt., while Montreal's Roger Durivage eliminated Frank Froehling of Chicago, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4.

$14,000 Race Is Carded Today at Washington Park

CHICAGO, Aug. 23 (AP).—Swain, a little grey speckled colt, will attempt to add another $35,000 to the bankroll of youthful Cleveland Putnam, Lake Forest, Ill., in the Washington Park Futurity tomorrow.

This mud-running two-year-old, purchased a year ago for $6,000, has been doing all right, for just a month ago he captured the Arlington Futurity, a victory worth $34,470.

Of ten starters for tomorrow's $44,125 prize, four will be new competitors for Swain. They are Good Turn, owned by Alfred G. Vanderbilt, New York; Porter's Cap, entry of Charles S. Howard, San Francisco; Big Stakes, owned by Arnold Hanger, New York; and To a Tee, entry of John March, Chicago.

Good Turn and Big Stakes are Eastern stake winners, while Porter's Cap and To a Tee may be regarded as outsiders.

SCRAPPY young wing forward, who last night scored the winning goal for the Jokers in the dying minutes of one of the season's most hectic boxa struggles, witnessed at the Victoria Sports Centre, Jimmy Smith bagged the tying marker when he "batted" the ball into the net, seconds after Goslie Ernie Gawley robbed him of what looked like a sure tally. Jokers scored seven goals in the final stanza, coming from behind to register a popular victory, and "Pud" Pridham bagged three of those telling tallies. The triumph was the second of the season for Coach Gus Munro's proteges over Servicemen.

Two-Year-Old Contenders To Meet in Grand Union Hotel Stakes

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y., Aug. 23 (AP).—Two outstanding Eastern claimants of racing's two-year-old title meet for the second time tomorrow in Saratoga's next-to-last Saturday show. They are the Calumet Farm's Whirlaway and Alfred Vanderbilt's New World.

When they first met, Whirlaway came from nowhere during the stretch run of the Saratoga Special to collar New World just before the finish line of that six-furlong sprint.

Tomorrow in the $12,000 Grand Union Hotel Stakes, however, the Vanderbilt youngster should improve in his third start. A six-pound pull in weights over Whirlaway and the capable Raymond Workman may be just what New World needs to upset the favorite. Whirlaway will carry 122 pounds and Johnny Longden, the jockey from Taber, Alta.

Six other leading juveniles have been named for the event including the Brandwine Stable's Pompano, Greentree's Monday Lunch, J. W. Dial's Hy-Cop, W. F. Boering's Twin Kippy and Port and Vanderbilt's Exploration.

Fernwood Giants Take Midget Cup

Fernwood Giants won the midget baseball championship yesterday morning by nailing out Cook Street Buildings, 12-11, in a hectic battle at Savory Park.

It was a hit-bitting affair with no respect for the pitchers, who have been overworked in the five-game series, and was anybody's ball game until the Giants drove in the winning run with one out in the last inning.

The Arthur Cox Cup, symbolic of the championship, will be presented to the winners at the annual baseball picnic tomorrow at Beaver Lake.

WINNERS AT UPLANDS

Results of the ladies' par competition played on the Uplands golf course yesterday are as follows:
"A" Class—Mrs. E. Jackson, all square.
"B" Class—Mrs. D. Fletcher, two up, and Mrs. Tuxford, two up.

This mud-running two-year-old, purchased a year ago for $6,000, has been doing all right, for just a month ago he captured the Arlington Futurity, a victory worth $34,470.

Of ten starters for tomorrow's $44,125 prize, four will be new competitors for Swain. They are Good Turn, owned by Alfred G. Vanderbilt, New York; Porter's Cap, entry of Charles S. Howard, San Francisco; Big Stakes, owned by Arnold Hanger, New York; and To a Tee, entry of John March, Chicago.

Good Turn and Big Stakes are Eastern stake winners, while Porter's Cap and To a Tee may be regarded as outsiders.

SCRAPPY young wing forward, who last night scored the winning goal for the Jokers in the dying minutes of one of the season's most hectic boxa struggles, witnessed at the Victoria Sports Centre, Jimmy Smith bagged the tying marker when he "batted" the ball into the net, seconds after Goslie Ernie Gawley robbed him of what looked like a sure tally. Jokers scored seven goals in the final stanza, coming from behind to register a popular victory, and "Pud" Pridham bagged three of those telling tallies. The triumph was the second of the season for Coach Gus Munro's proteges over Servicemen.

FINNANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Leading Stocks Take Drop in New York Mart

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (P)—Leading stocks stumbled in today's market for the first time this week.

The trend was lower from the start but the volume dwindled after the first hour. Occasional recovery shifts met with faint response and prices generally closed around the low of the day at declines of 1 to 3 points.

Steel, motors, aircrafts and specialties were the principal sufferers. At that, there was a smattering of plus signs at the finish.

The Associated Press average of sixty issues was off 5.5 of a point at 42.2 after five successive advances. Transfers amounted to 294,460 shares, compared with 442,180 the day before.

The cashing in of profits by speculative forces, brokers said, was natural in view of the lengthy upturn. The fact activity lessened on the setback was interpreted as constructive.

Aside from pessimism over congressional delay in mapping a national tax programme and settling disputed excess profits proposals, business items remained fairly comforting to financial quarters.

On the cheerful side was a further upturn in this week's retail spending, an expansion in output of new automobiles with manufacturers preparing to take on a large side line of armament construction, and brightening prospects for airplane makers and the railways.

Rails slipped sharply in the bond market today, upsetting a mild forward movement among industrial and utilities.

United States Governments, barely active, closed 4-32 point higher to 4-32 lower.

Losses in the foreign government list included issues of Canada, Argentina, Australia, Germany, Italy and Denmark.

DOW JONES AVERAGES

Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:

Thirty Industrials, 123.34, off 1.12.
Twenty Stocks, 26.81, off .38.
Fifteen Utilities, 22.54, off .28.
Total sales, 290,000.

STOCKS RISE IN MONTREAL MART

MONTREAL, Aug. 23 (P)—The stock market today put on a more cheerful aspect at the close as advances in nearly all sections of the list more than counteracted the few declines.

Steel of Canada preferred gained 1-1/4 while general steel warrants tacked on the minimum amount. Nickel retained an advance of 1-1/2.

U.S. BAPTISTS AID BRITISH MISSIONS

Contributions Being Made to Funds To Prosecute Work in India, Africa and China

TORONTO, Aug. 23.—Baptist people in both Canada and the United States are making contributions to a fund for aid to British Baptist foreign mission work.

Emergency appeals were made recently to the Northern and Southern Baptists of America by the Baptist Missionary Society in Britain for an immediate loan of $250,000 with which to meet the cost of the work in India, Africa and China, of its 417 missionaries. This action was necessitated by inability, because of war regulations, to send money out of Britain.

The Southern convention promptly undertook to raise $100,000 of the amount, stipulating, however, that it would not be a loan, but a "gift of love," and suggesting that further assistance, likely to be necessary, would be given when called for.

Issue Call for Prayers

MOST REV. COSMO LANG Archbishop of Canterbury

MOST REV. WILLIAM TEMPLE Archbishop of York

A MESSAGE to the people of Great Britain, issued jointly last month by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, has vital interest and significance at the present time for the people of Canada as well. It is in the main part as follows:

"There is one power which can always overcome fear. It is faith in God, faith that God reigns. Humbly but confidently we can commit our cause to Him. It must be in accordance with His will that men should defend their land, their homes, their freedom. It must be in accordance with His will that the evil powers now warring against the forces of good should be withstood, that justice, truth, mercy, freedom should not perish from the earth. Thus, even in this anxious hour, the summons comes, 'Lift up your hearts.' Let the answer be, 'We lift them up unto the Lord.'"

"It is in prayer that we thus lift up our hearts. We must pray without ceasing. Let every day, and especially every Lord's day, be a day of national prayer. To this end we send this message asking that daily at noon our fellow citizens who believe in God should in the midst of their work, whatever it may be, make a momentary act of remembrance and prayer. We are authorized to say that the adoption of this suggestion whenever it may be practicable commends itself warmly to His Majesty the King. Thus, at noon each day, the heart of the nation would be united in turning to God."

"Yet, if prayer is to be real, it must be honest. Honesty requires penitence—for our manifold sins and shortcomings as a people and as individual men and women, for our failure to be a Christian nation in fact as well as in phrase. Honesty requires a right purpose—that if victory be given to us we shall not use it selfishly, not vindictively, but for the establishment of God's truth and justice in our own land, among our own people, and so far as we can in the world. The best and deepest way of meeting this testing time is to trust in the name of the Lord and stay upon our God. This is the spirit that will banish fear and give us calmness, steadfastness, and courage. Come what may, let us hold fast to the eternal truth—God reigns."

Bishop of Eastern Oregon to Preach at Christ Church

HOLY Communion will be celebrated at Christ Church Cathedral at 8 and 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. The Rt. Rev. W. P. Remington, D.D., Bishop of Eastern Oregon, will preach at the 11 o'clock service. The Dean will be the preacher at Evensong at 7:30 p.m.

"Mind" to Be Subject On Sunday

"Mind" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The Golden Text is, "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his." "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God" (Romans vi, 12, 13).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All that really exists is the divine Mind and its idea, and in this Mind the eternal being is found harmonious and entire. The straight and narrow way is to see and acknowledge this fact, yield to this power, and follow the leadings of truth."
